Subject:

Yes Rueben this is danny....my reason for emailing is clarify what I was referring to about false accusations. The overseers didn't even know you were at Cluny funeral and here you are accusing us about not letting you come.

Secondly there's no grounds for saying what you did about education...there has never been an incidence where people asked for a higher education ..most times children are glad to get out of school to join the workforce...most tomes as you know they excel in their endeavors and have full the full support of colony....there have been many incidences where persons have went to trade schools to learn various trades the supports this...im a senior director on the Hutterite School Committee. We have had several meetings with the education department and at the last meeting in oct. honorable Adriane Lagrange told us that we have an excellent school system and that we shouldn't change anything..so to put it bluntly there is education system anywhere in the world comes close to the care Hutterite children receive and i might add this is what you rejected.

Thirdly about not letting apostates come to funerals. How does it fir rejecting your parents and when they die come home to make a show? in my mind show respect for your parents while they are alive no amount of sitting beside deceased's casket will compensate for what could have been done in real life and the truth is this is hypocrisy.....we have rules !! do you know of any company that doesn't? your company for instance if you want to work for them you have to comply with company policies....our church would not have survived 500 years if we didn't have policies.

so from here on in any questions you might have you can discuss with our advocate David Shady Lane at 1 780 557 [REDACTED]
